SOUTH CAROLINA EQUESTRIAN MINISTRIES

Pastor Richard McDuffie, Founder

WHAT IS SOUTH CAROLINA EQUESTRIAN MINISTRIES?

South Carolina Equestrian Ministries (SCEM) is a Christian organization of believers in Christ, with a mission to take the news of Christ's saving grace to the equestrian world and beyond. SCEM was formed in 1997 and is currently comprised of several fellowships located throughout the state.

Members enjoy Christian fellowship with those who desire to share God's love and the Gospel of Jesus Christ through various activities and events involving horses.

WHAT DO WE DO?

Each fellowship operates independently of each other, but under the leadership of SCEM. Most plan weekend trail rides and overnight camping trips. Also on their agendas are fun day events open to the public, ministry outreach projects to meet the physical and spiritual needs of those in the community, organized 3-day weekend horse events that include trail riding, an evening social time, and cowboy church on Sunday.

Our goal is to let others see that Christ can be the center of our lives whether at the barn, arena, out on the trails, attending a horse event, or sponsoring an event of our own.

Ministries include: cowboy church, Bible studies, Connie Maxwell Home, fun days, and more.

WHO ARE WE AND WHERE ARE WE?

Currently, there are five SCEM fellowships:

- Equestrian Ministries Saddle Club - serving the Piedmont/Foothills areas
- Grace Riders — serving the Upstate area
- Great Adventure Fellowship — Serving the Camden to Myrtle Beach area
- Faith Riders - currently on hold
- White Horse Equestrian Ministries — Serving the Greater Columbia and Lexington areas

HOW TO JOIN SCEM

Annual Dues are $20. Please visit the SCEM website to print an application or e-mail the SCEM secretary/treasurer at: jolene10@frontier.com Horse ownership is not a prerequisite, but knowing Christ is.
